IN PROGRESS
Proposed Slate of Directors as Recommended by the Nominations Committee for Membership Approval
April 2, 2013

Nominated Directors:
Ray Dunetz (Class B, term expires 2016)
Frances Harrell (Class B, term expires 2016)
Robin Lee (Class B, term expires 2016)
Stephen Pepper (Class B, term expires 2016)
John Pynchon (Class B, term expires 2016)
Elizabeth Wylie (Class B, term expires 2016)

Remaining Directors:
The following Directors will remain on the Board, as their terms do not expire this year:
Heather Carito (Class A, term expires 2015)
Allison Mather Cook (Class C, term expires 2014)
Mimi Kantor (Class C, term expires 2014)
Nancy Leask (Class A, term expires 2015)
Richard McGuinness (Class A, term expires 2015)
Courtney Feeley Karp (Class C, term expires 2014)
Nancy Routh (Class A, term expires 2015)
Edward Stanley (Class C, term expires 2014)
Marieke Van Damme (Class C, term expires 2014)

Brief biographies of both nominated and remaining Directors are listed on the following pages.

Respectfully submitted,

The Nominations Committee
Allison Mather Cook; Clerk and Chair, Nominations Committee
Elizabeth Wylie, Director

Biographies of Nominated and Remaining Directors
 Nominated

Edward Stanley (Class C, term expires 2014)
Ed currently serves as President of the Board and served as Vice President beginning in 2008. He has been a Jamaica Plain Tuesday Club member since 2003. He has been involved with the House Management Committee for many years, most recently as Chair. Ed is a certified personal property appraiser with a specialization in American fine art, furniture and decorative arts. Prior to establishing his appraisal firm, he was a historic preservation consultant, advising a variety of governmental agencies, developers, and non-profit organizations on regulatory and other issues. Ed holds a BA in History from Bates College, an MBA from the University of Connecticut and an MA in Historic Preservation from Boston University. In addition, he is a graduate of the Program in Appraisal Studies in Art and Antiques at the Rhode Island School of Design. Ed brings a wealth of skills, enthusiasm and solid commitment to his volunteer service, making invaluable contributions to the Club and, most especially, to the Loring-Greenough House.

Marieke van Damme (Class C, term expires 2014)
Marieke currently serves as Vice President of the Board and has been a JPTC member since 2009. She served as Clerk from 2011 to 2012. By day, she is Deputy Director for Development and Planning at the Bostonian Society, where she has been since in 2007 as Collections Manager as well as Old State House Site Director. Prior to joining the Society, Van Damme worked in collections management for the National Park Service in Sitka, Alaska, and in Salem, Massachusetts. More recently, she managed an 18th-century historic site in Peabody, Massachusetts. She holds a BA in History from LeMoyne College, an MA in Museum Studies from Harvard University, a Certificate in Fundraising Management from Boston University, and an MA in Arts Administration from Boston University. Marieke is the founding Chair of both the Collections Committee and its subset, the Archives Committee, and currently co-chairs the Club's Development Committee.

Ray Dunetz (Class B, term expires 2013)
Ray currently serves as Treasurer of the Board and has been a JPTC member since 2006. He was the Chair of the Landscape Committee from 2008 to 2012. A landscape architect, Ray worked on the JPTC Historic Landscape Report prior to starting his own firm, Ray Dunetz Landscape Architecture (RDLA). Ray has been working in the field for 25 years for nationally recognized landscape design firms and was the President of the Boston Society of Landscape Architects from 2010-11. He is currently teaching at the Boston Architectural College has served as a guest critic at Harvard Graduate School of Design. Ray has had the pleasure of working on a number of historic designed landscapes as well as two prominent projects in Jamaica Plain. As head of the Landscape Committee, he energized a group of volunteers to raise funds and implement improvements to the property. As Treasurer, Ray has brought a welcome consistency and professionalism to the Club's financial administration.

Allison Mather Cook (Class C, term expires 2014)
Allison currently serves as Clerk of the Board and has been a JPTC member since 2008, following in the footsteps of her mother, Dawn Cook. Her first volunteer work for the Club was for the textile collection project, where she managed inventorying and re-housing the collections using archival storage materials. Currently an Auction Assistant at Skinner, Inc., Allison has also volunteered at the Museum of Science for the past five years. She graduated from Boston Latin School, has a BA from Smith College, and is a long-time Boston resident.

Heather Carito (Class A, term expires 2015)
Heather joined the JPTC in 2009. She is a mother of three who has been active in the Jamaica Plain community since the 1980s. She has served on the Standing Committee of First Church in Jamaica Plain and is now actively involved in the Social Action Group there. Heather currently serves on the Advisory Board for the JP Forum. From 1988-1996, she was co-coordinator and treasurer of JP Soccer, a recreational soccer league for children and teens in JP. Heather has deep roots in this area going back to the 1600s, and she is fascinated with local history. She enjoys doing research and has spent a great deal of time doing genealogical research on her mother's roots, which are not as well-documented as those of her father. Heather is detail-oriented and has knowledge of archiving.

Frances Harrell (Class B, term expires 2013)
Frances joined the JPTC in 2010. She is a founding member of the Archives Committee, as well as working on the Membership and Public Programs Committees. Frances is in the final stretch of her MLIS degree at Simmons College in Boston, in the Archives Management program. She currently volunteers at the Bostonian Society Library, and works as Development Associate at the Brookline Community Mental Health Center. She looks forward to graduating in the next year and joining the archives profession officially.

Courtney Feeley Karp (Class C, term expires 2014)
Courtney has been a JPTC member since 2009. She and her husband Roy were married at the LGH in 2004 and started volunteering as a result. She works as an attorney for Prince Lobel Tye LLP in the Real Estate and Renewable Energy practice Group. Prior to that she worked for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, most recently as the Renewable Energy and Policy Counsel with the Massachusetts Department of Energy Resources. Courtney also worked in the State House as Associate Counsel for the Senate Ways and Means Committee and in various other capacities. She holds a JD from Northeastern University and a BA in Political Science with a minor in history from Union College. Courtney is a lifelong lover of history, especially the Revolutionary War era in Boston and women from Massachusetts.

Mimi Kantor (Class C, term expires 2014)
Mimi joined the JPTC in 2009 and has been instrumental in developing and launching the Club's redesigned website and implementing a new Salesforce NonProfit Edition database, both have become JPTC's principal communications vehicles. She is a NonProfit Technology Consultant with Database Designs in Boston, a firm that specializes in develop custom database projects largely for non-profit clients. Mimi was born in Massachusetts, grew up in Connecticut and spent many years in New York working in various capacities in marketing, photography, non-profit management and special events. Mimi has a Master's Degree in Media Studies & Film and considerable orientation to the communication needs of non-profit organizations. She lives in Jamaica Plain with her husband Reuben.

Nancy Leask (Class A, term expires 2015)
Nancy joined the JPTC in 2010 and has volunteered with the Landscape Committee since 2008. As a landscape architect with RDLA, Ray Dunetz Landscape Architecture, Nancy is fortunate to have worked on two local park sites as well as numerous other projects in eastern Massachusetts. Nancy is also a board member with Roslindale Green and Clean. She has over 30 years in the landscape architecture field, having worked for other Boston area design firms since graduation. Nancy was raised in southern Connecticut and the Concord, MA area and graduated from the University of Minnesota with a Bachelor's degree in landscape architecture. Nancy has lived in Roslindale since 1998.

Robin Cuthbert Lee (Class B, term expires 2016)
Robin Cuthbert Lee has been the Chair of the Collections Committee for the past 10 months. She originally joined the JPTC in May 2011 as a volunteer on the Archives Subcommittee. A native Houstonian, Robin's background includes volunteering in the Dominican Republic with Peace Corps and working as a Curatorial Research Assistant in the Arts of Africa and Oceania at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. She holds a BA in Anthropology from the University of Texas at Austin, and an MA in the Arts of Africa, Oceania and the Americas from the University of East Anglia, United Kingdom. Robin currently works with scholars in the History and Anthropology of Religion at Harvard Divinity School as a Faculty Assistant. She lives in Hyde Square with her husband, Matt, and their cat, Lady Puffnose.

Richard McGuinness (Class A, term expires 2015)
Richard McGuinness is a native Jamaica Plainer who now lives in Dedham. He joined the JPTC in 2007. He is the Deputy Director for Waterfront Planning at the Boston Redevelopment Authority. Rich manages the BRA's waterfront planning initiatives and has been directly involved in many of Boston's most important waterfront planning efforts in the last thirteen years. Apart from his work at the BRA, Rich represents Mayor Thomas M. Menino and the Boston Harbor Region on the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Seaport Advisory Council. Rich also represents the City of Boston on the Boston Harbor Islands National Recreation Area Partnership. Rich is a graduate of The Catholic University of America.

Stephen Pepper (Class B, term expires 2013)
Stephen joined the JPTC in 2008 and was elected to the Board in 2010. He coordinates the work of the docents as part of the Education and Tours Committee--and is always recruiting new docents! Stephen and his husband Sam Goldfarb have lived in JP since 1999. Stephen grew up in Detroit and moved to Boston in 1972 to live in a city that respects and preserves history. His day job, for the next 4.5 years, is at MIT; after that, it's JPTC full-time!

John Pynchon (Class B, term expires 2013)
John, a member of the JPTC since 1993, is the Chair of the Landscape Committee, and the first male member of the Club. He has been a resident of Jamaica Plain since 1985. John served as a Board Member for a number of years and was a part of the task force that first investigated the possibilities of having salaried staff, leadership, or fundraisers as an integral part of the management of the Loring-Greenough House. Originally from Maine, John was schooled at Phillips Academy, Middlebury College, and received a BArch degree from The Rhode Island School of Design. He worked in the field of design and architecture and gained his Architect license for the state of Massachusetts. In1992, John joined the Brookline office of what is now known as Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage. The traditions and history of Jamaica Plain have always intrigued John, who has always found great pleasure in knowing the like-minded people of the JPTC.

Nancy Routh (Class A, term expires 2015)
Nancy Routh joined the JPTC in 2009. She joined City Year as the Director of Human Resources in 1994 and then became Director of the National Corps, during which time she helped grow City Year from 4 locations to 11. Subsequently, Nancy became Vice President of Development where she oversaw all fundraising initiatives and built the National Leadership Sponsor program. Currently Nancy is the Chief People Officer and Senior Vice President of City Year's Human Resources division with a priority on attracting, retaining and developing staff to meet the organization's goals. Prior to joining City Year, Nancy worked for The Boston Company, a financial service company, as Vice President and Human Resource Director. Nancy graduated from Fairleigh Dickenson University, with a Bachelor's in psychology and sociology, and Cambridge College, with a Master's in Education.